Angela K. Lowder

Bright Beginnings - Finance & HR Manager

2005 to present

B.A., Community Health – University of Rochester (NY)

M.H.A. – The Ohio State University

Angela Lowder is the Finance and HR Manager for Bright Beginnings (formerly Help Me Grow of Cuyahoga County). She is a financial and operations professional experienced in the healthcare, academic, public, and non-profit sectors. She joined the Educational Service Center (ESC) of Cuyahoga County after working with Bright Beginnings, then known as Help Me Grow, as a consultant for The Cleveland Foundation. The Cleveland Foundation and Cuyahoga County led a public-private partnership that formed Invest in Children, Cuyahoga County's early childhood initiative.

Prior experience includes roles as Associate Director for the Center for Community Development at the Mandel School of Social Sciences, Case Western Reserve University, and Administrative Director of Obstetrics and Gynecology at MetroHealth Medical Center.

Angela received her B.A. in Community Health from the University of Rochester, New York, and her M.H.A. from The Ohio State University with concentrations in finance and planning.

Angela, born a Hoosier and reared a Buckeye, grew up in Kent, Ohio. She has family members across the states including the Greater Cleveland area.
