Katie Parker

Bright Beginnings - Early Intervention Manager

2013 to present

B.S.- Cleveland State University, M.A.- Kent State University

Katie Parker is the Early Intervention Manager for Bright Beginnings (formerly Help Me Grow of Cuyahoga County). Prior to her current role, Katie worked as an Early Intervention Service Coordination Supervisor and Service Coordinator with Help Me Grow.

Katie received her B.S. in Education, Moderate/Intensive Educational needs from Cleveland State University and her M.A. in Human Development and Family Studies from Kent State University. She was an Intervention Specialist for three years before pursuing her master's degree. Her focus in graduate school was on parent involvement in the lives and education of their children with delays and disabilities.

Katie grew up in Cleveland Heights, where she was active in the schools and community, and eventually began her first teaching position. Katie currently lives in Mayfield Village with her husband, two young sons, and rambunctious German Short-Haired Pointer, Macallan.
